Wireless Headphone RZE-BT180H

SKU: RZE-BT180H

Toshiba presents RZE-BT180H, a unique wireless, Bluetooth headphone that not only looks great but sounds great too. It is a perfect blend, of form and function, giving you the best audio experience. RZE-BT180H is a great headphone for those who want versatility, for both home and office use.

PERFORMANCE

RZE-BT180H offers impressive and immersive Hi-Fi sound quality with its closed-back design and 40mm driver. They come with an option to play, pause, forward and rewind music. RZE-BT180H also offers good noise-cancellation performance (CSR chipset), but does not damage sound nor would drain the battery. The built-in, noise-rejecting dual-microphone system gives you super clear phone calls, even in noisy environments, that makes this headset suitable for office use as well.

CONNECTIVITY

With the advanced Bluetooth options, RZE-BT180H employs Bluetooth Version 4.2 + EDR, that let you stay connected through wireless connectivity. These headphones are compatible with a wide range of devices and enable simple wireless pairing with smartphones, tablets, TVs and other Bluetooth devices within 33 feet, bringing you crystal clear sound. RZE-BT180H also gives you the option to connect to 2 devices at the same time.

CHARGING

Charging via USB DC5V port. A single charge (3 hours) provides up to 8 hours of uninterrupted audio playback.
